

Daniel Alexander Ryan

Guitarist/Composer/Arranger/Producer

Super City

- Singer, guitarist, songwriter and producer for an original rock band regularly featured on WTMD and in large Baltimore area festivals including Artscape. In 2018 received WTMD's 'Album of the Year' award. Opened for Grammy winners Black Pumas and Bombino, among other large national acts. Recently signed with SofaBurn records.

Bodega

- Lead guitarist and collaborator for an original rock band from Brooklyn, NY. Played on the album 'Broken Equipment' which was featured in NME, Pitchfork, and received regular rotation on BBC6. Toured for ten weeks in Europe to promote the album, as well as extensive national touring, opening for acts like Spoon and The Kills.

Talking Points

- Guitarist and composer for collaborative jazz quintet that specializes in through-composed, complex, original material. Recorded two albums, one of which was a three-movement suite entitled 'Leonard', written by Dan Ryan involving a string quartet and a brass quartet in addition to the regular quintet.

Film Scoring

- Currently composing for two films: One a feature-length documentary for London-based director Oliver David, the other a feature film from Ben Hozie, the director of Pvt. Chat and other films.

Other Projects

- Has contributed guitar, drums, synthesizers, writing, production, as well as string/brass arrangements to artists like Hundred Dollar Girlfriend, Outcalls, Ellen Cherry, The Lunar Year, Adjective Animal, Danah Denise, Micah E. Wood, Peach Face, Kristen Toedtman, Darius Christian, Heroine, and Theljon Allen.
